

Reclaim Your Property!

In the year 1320, Pope John XXII, acting on behalf of the Catholic Church, declared that Jesus was the Savior of the world and that ALL material possessions, books, and other valuables in this world belong to him—and thus to the Catholic Church and, in particular, to the Pope as the Vicar of Christ—meaning that no one else is the owner of anything (see, for example, the article www.welt.de/geschichte/article152099477).

On an energetic level, this claim was established as an eternal spell encompassing the entire world and all beings, which results in the majority of the wealth earned by all those who have not yet freed themselves from it being taken away at regular intervals. This manifests itself, of course, financially, but also, for example, when something gets off to a good start, becomes truly successful, and then suddenly the success comes to an abrupt halt. Or it can manifest as the recurring feeling of being treated below one's worth, receiving less and less than one is entitled to, and similar experiences.

For all these reasons—and for the sake of freedom and free will—this spell must be broken! Each person must break it themselves; you may only do so for others if they expressly wish it, otherwise—strictly speaking—you are practicing black magic because you are not respecting the other person's free will.

The lifting of the spell takes place in two stages: first, the timeline is changed—that is, you step out of the timeline where the spell was cast. It's important to know that this does not change the past; rather, you choose a different past that takes effect immediately. Then the spell itself, everything that could still be keeping it in place, and all its effects are completely erased, and everything that was lost is recovered.

Procedure

Step 1

- Let your soul guide you back in time, before the year 1320, before this initiation of property theft by Pope John XXII and his entourage—back to a point before this event, when you still have full freedom of action
- And at this point in time, shift the timeline by deciding:
“I am stepping out of the events to come! I did not participate in them—I followed my own path, the light path of the Creator. The events and all those involved have followed their own paths. Our paths have not crossed again!” (Take 3 deep breaths)

Step 2

- Now connect with the purest, highest, loving Creator Consciousness
- As you exhale, focus and think, “I let go of everything that holds me back,” and take three deep breaths again, then decide:
 - With the help of the purest, highest, loving Creator Consciousness, I am permanently and irrevocably dissolving the ban on ownership imposed by Pope John XXII and the Catholic Church as the executing authority, as well as all other external claims on my mental, material, energetic, and spiritual property!

I annul them, regardless of

- whether they were carried out or arose with me or against me,
- whether I entered into them consciously or unconsciously, or was forced to do so,
- whether I am aware of them, have forgotten them, never knew them, or have repressed them,
- whether they originate from this life or a previous one,
- whether they are material, mental, subtle, or black magic influences,
- whether they are obvious or hidden deprivations,
- whether through deceptions, based on collective illusions, or manipulation of energy flows

—I now completely dissolve them all across all dimensions and on all levels, and I now completely free myself from these external influences across all dimensions and on all levels.

(Wait until the dissolution and liberation have been fully accomplished with the help of the purest, highest, loving Creator Consciousness)

- I also permanently and irrevocably erase all associated copies, backups, informational or energetic traces, repetitions, and time loops, as well as all related contracts that would maintain these external encroachments on my mental, material, energetic, and spiritual property, including all deletion locks. (wait)
- I permanently and irrevocably erase all negative effects, side effects, and anchors—whether of a mental, emotional, subtle, health-related, energetic, spiritual, or material nature—for myself and all my descendants, as well as for my entire ancestral pyramid. I further erase all related cellular memories and the entire memory of pain. (wait)

- I forgive all those involved, especially Pope John XXII, who initiated this whole process in 1320, and the Catholic Church as the executing authority in the form of its officials. I ask all those involved for their forgiveness. I accept their forgiveness. And I forgive myself. (pause)
- Now, as you inhale, focus and think, “I take in everything that serves me,” and take three deep breaths again, then:
 - With the help of the purest, highest, loving Creator Consciousness, I now allow unconditional love to flow into all the areas that have been freed and fill them completely with it. (pause)
 - With the help of the purest, highest, loving Creator Consciousness, I bring back to myself—completely purified, healed, and sanctified—everything I have lost through others’ encroachments on my mental, material, energetic, and spiritual property. I fully integrate all of my mental, material, energetic, and spiritual possessions, activate them, take full possession of them, and connect them with my entire being. (pause)

Conclusion

- You have now done everything; follow the new timeline until you have returned to the present via the new timeline, then:
 - I give thanks for the dissolution, liberation, and reclamation with the help of the purest, highest, loving Creator Consciousness. I ... am ... free and in full possession of all my property—for the highest good of all! From now on, I have full access to my mental, material, energetic, and spiritual property, as well as unshakable and boundless confidence in the Creator and in myself ... and ... I am ... free! (Take 3 deep breaths)
 - So it is, and so it shall be. So it is, and so it shall be. So it is, and so it shall be. Amen, thank you!